

This the season to be Grateful!

+++Be Grateful+++

November & December '09

2008 and 2009 have been really trying years for many families. Many people have been affected by the economy and the backlashes of corporate America. I, to myself, was affected; but then again I wasn't. This situation has drawn me closer to my Maker. There was a void I was lacking for the longest, and it took this practical situation to help me realize that my choices and decisions should be based on eternal ramifications. I now know where my daily bread comes from. If HE could take care of a sparrow, I know he will take care of me. 2010 is going to be a year full of Abundance. So put the past behind you and move forward!

This time of year makes me has everyone feeling giddy and cheerful! I am a natural giver. Even though, this time of year was created to give, remember that you should always give. Its better to give then to receive. That's a universal law! But also remember the true meaning of 12/25; The Son of Man gave his life all because of LOVE. Have a safe and happy holiday! TNG

Face/Forward is a new and exciting brand created by Akilah Richards and Tawana Gibbs. Execumama Enterprises and Corporate Chics, LLC are two companies that have very similar concepts. The two women met over lunch to discuss the possibility of creating networking events and it has been history in the making since then! Make sure you are in attendance at their kick-off event on 12/10/09 from 6:30pm—8:30 pm @Mist Lounge. For more information visit www.Face-Forward.com.

Great Stocking Stuffers!

Corporate Chics the book, is an entertaining novel about a beautiful, educated, Native American who recently graduated college and has entered the corporate world.

Through friendships with co-workers in her new role, she is on a consistent journey of learning all about life through their mistakes but most importantly her experiences. On this journey, Koilya learns vital lessons about finances, marriage, sex, love, false perceptions, envy, friendship, and infidelity. If she doesn't wake up and realize that her selfishness is the reason for the misfortune she is encountering, she could ultimately lose everything that she has worked so hard to obtain. Women from all walks of life can relate to the story and the issues it explores.

Peggy Johnson, CEO of Fabulous Pooches, has created an innovative idea for pet lovers and anyone involved in the pet industry. She has recognized that this is an untapped market and wanted to create a brand that will be here for years to come.

During the holidays, eating and stuffing ourselves is so easy to do. But who is usually right there waiting to get the leftovers? Our pets! So while we are piling on the pounds, so are our pets. Can you believe that our pets are now becoming overweight?

The product that Corporate Chics is helping this new business offer is a new and wonderful way to have fun and burn calories. The Cardio Fun CD is a workout CD with fun upbeat music, for people and their pets. You can exercise, play in the park with Frisbees, host doggie parties & doggie fashion shows. The CD is just the first of many products by Fabulous Pooches, LLC.

December 1 was world AIDS day. Awareness is important because we all can do something about this epidemic!
